FOUNDER'S VIEW

We at Little Angels School believe the 5 C's - Communication, Collaboration, Creativity, Critical Thinking and Character will give a new dimension to our school and patrons. In this new age of technology driven education, we trust that these five cornerstones are going to be the major role players, which will give an edge to our students and make them future ready. Alongside, we ensure that each and every individual in our school is given an opportunity to evolve and hone their skills.

Learning is a lifelong journey—one that shapes individuals, drives progress, and prepares us for the ever-evolving challenges of the future. As educators, we hold the immense responsibility of igniting curiosity and instilling a passion for knowledge in young minds. The foundation of education is not just about imparting information; it is about equipping students with the skills and mindset needed to thrive in a world of constant transformation.

At Little Angels School, we believe that education should go beyond textbooks. We foster a dynamic learning environment where technology-enhanced instructions, hands-on experiences, collaborative projects and individual exploration empower students to discover their strengths. Our approach integrates talent-spotting into the core of education, ensuring that every child receives the necessary support to refine their abilities and excel. In addition to academics, we emphasize co-curricular, extracurricular, and sporting activities to create well-rounded individuals.

But education is more than just keeping up with technology; it is about nurturing critical thinkers. What kind of reasoning should take root in an inquisitive mind? How do we shape young learners so they can analyze, apply logical reasoning and share knowledge that is practical, relevant and meaningful? At Little Angels School, we focus on these fundamental questions, ensuring that our students are not just prepared for the future but are also capable of shaping it.
